Biography

Bradley W. Hasse
Badge # 98

The Crown Point Police Department is pleased to announce the hiring of Bradley Hasse, age 30, as its newest police officer. Brad's hiring will bring the total number of current police officers to 44.

Brad is a 2004 graduate of Crown Point High School. After graduating from high school, he enlisted in the U.S. Army where he served for six (6) years. During his military service, he completed the U.S. Army Ranger School and served as a Ranger with the 1st Ranger Battalion eventually rising to the Team Leader of the 75th Ranger Regiment Special Operations Unit. He served two (2) combat deployments in Iraq and Afghanistan where he lead his Ranger rifle team in combat.

After leaving the military, he attended the University of Texas at Arlington where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in History Education, graduating summa cum laude. After graduation, Brad returned to live in his hometown of Crown Point where he still resides. In 2014, he was hired as a police officer by the Hammond Police Department. He graduated from the Northwest Indiana Law Enforcement Academy in the same year where he was named the Academy's Physical Fitness Award Recipient.

Aside from his military and law enforcement achievements, Brad is a Certified Personal Trainer by the National Academy of Sports Medicine and is also a certified teacher in secondary education.

He is married to his wife Melanie, also a Crown Point High School graduate, and they have one (1) son.
