Crown Point 10th Annual Oktoberfest Chili Cook-Off Competitor Rules

Contestants are able to enter several batches of chili into the competition, but they will all be judged under ONE CATEGORY. Contestants are responsible for getting their chili ready on time and keeping it at the appropriate temperature (temperature maintained at no lower than 140 Degrees) for judging. Judging will take place October 7, 2017.

Rules for Competitors:

1. Chili must be prepared in advance from raw ingredients- no mixes. Chili must come “ready to eat”.
2. During check in each competitor will be provided with a numbered container for judging, once handed over it is the sole responsibility of the contestant.
3. Chili must be presented for judging in the container provided to each contestant, but may be garnished as liked.
4. This year, we will be judging ALL chili in the same category. Each contestant is welcome to bring as many entries as they desire, but they will all be placed in only one category.
5. A complete list of ingredients must be available to judges. We do not require your recipe- just a list of what is in it.
6. Contestants must bring a minimum of 1 gallon of chili. You will be serving the public so we encourage you to make more than the minimum. With one cup to be presented to judges.
7. Contestants must provide their own heating unit (example- crock pot, camp stove, or chafing dish) and any utensils needed. One electric outlet will be provided per contestant, not per category- if in more than one category contestant must provide a multi-plug strip.
8. Organization will provide cups for samples to public, which contestant may pass out once judging is under way. Each contestant is responsible for own ladle to serve. Keep in mind this is a sample, 1- 2 oz. is adequate.
9. Contestants may bring in coolers to keep ingredients and beverages cold. Alcohol not purchased from provided vendor is not allowed on premises.
